COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 7.—The cotton market was very nervous and irregular to-day, the strength of the statistical vosition and the old crop months tending to offset the bearlist influence of favorable weather and crop advices. The close was steady; net 2 points higher to 8 points lower.

The market opened steady, at an advance of 1gg11 points, and during the early trading sold shout 16 22 points higher on the old crop, with fully touching hab and August 11.55, or new high ground for the movement. The new crop was readively easy, owing to favorable weather in the South and some Southern seiling, but it responded partly to the old crop stream, which was due to continued covering a short, arm cables and large Liverpool capt sales, with veals, about 485 points not higher during the serily session. It looked on fit this relief had exhausted the more urgent demand from shorts, and after the close of Liverpool, the market here exhausted rather easier. A break in New Orleans and Southern selling, following the publication of a favorable ling, following the publication of a favorable ling, following the publication of a favorable should be sent the close of Liverpool, the market here exhausted a favorable should be publicated and southern selling, following the publication of a favorable should be sent to the content of the content of

REVIVAL ENDS IN ROMANCE.

Methodist Minister Falls in Love With Evangelist and They Marry. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., June 7.—A romance, which had its beginning in a church revival in Gastonia, N. C., many months ago, culminated to-night in the marriage of Rev. Harry Cleveland Smith, paster of the Methodist Episcopa. Church, South, at Gastonia, and Miss Caroline M. Oison, a traveling evangelist, who for the past six years has been conducting revival meetings throughout the South and Middle West. The marriage took place at the First Methodist Church, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. John C. Pattie, paster of the church, and a brotherin-law of the bride. Many months ago the bride conducted a revival for Rev. Mr. Smith in Gastonia, and it was at that time the romance, which culminated in marriage to-night, started.
